Mysuru sizzles in summer heat; hotter days ahead

Period	Temperature
Apr. 9 to Apr. 12	34 to 35 degrees Celsius
Apr. 16 to Apr. 19	31.2 to 34 degrees Celsius
Apr. 20 to Apr. 22	34.2 to 34.4 degrees Celsius
Apr. 23 to Apr. 27	35 to 37 degrees Celsius

With scorching summer heat, people are seen queuing up at tender coconut-laden vehicles to quench their thirst this morning.

No respite in the offing; temperature to hit 37 degrees Celsius on Apr. 27

Mysuru, Apr. 24 (BCT)- Day-by-day, the city is reeling under intense heat due to soaring temperature and the residents have to brace up for hotter days till the next continuous pre-monsoon showers.

Though Mysuru receives occasional showers with heavy intensity accompanied by thunder and lightning in most of the city areas like last evening, this has not helped reduce searing heat. While sporadic rain provides momentary relief, the days followed by rainy days are hotter.

Though the heat during the day is expected as it is April and peak summer, the temperature during night is not giving any respite. Temperatures have seen a steady rise from Apr. 9.

According to the data released by Organic Farming Research Station at Naganahalli (OFRSN), a unit of India Meteorological Department (IMD), the maximum day temperature from Apr. 9 to Apr. 12 hovered between 34 and 35 degrees Celsius while the minimum (night) temperature was between 21.2 and 23.5 degrees Celsius.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

After completing my post-graduation in the late eighties, I was looking for a break in the print media. My long-time ambition was to be a journalist. I set about finding a reporter's job in newspapers or magazines. In those days, since there were no electronic media, our spectrum of choice was limited. Finally, I got a call from a magazine that was being launched. My first assignment as a reporter was to interview Khushwant Singh. As a callow twenty-five-year-old reporter with no prior experience, I, with a degree of trepidation, dialled his number.

The voice at the other end said, "Hello, this is Khushwant." I introduced my-self and said if he would be kind enough to grant me an interview for our soon-to-be launched magazine.

Much to my surprise, Khushwant, a stickler for time, agreed to give an interview. He said, "Do come at 3 pm sharp." I was given half an hour to complete the interview. Accordingly, I reached his sprawling ground-floor home ten minutes ahead of schedule...

The interview session began sharp at 3 pm. I asked him about his views on a range of issues like politics, art and literature, including his views on the 1975 Emergency... To see Khushwant speak was thoroughly edifying and enlightening. Since I had no tape recorder, I jotted down his views in my notebook carefully so as not to misquote him.

The half-an-hour interview went off well, much to my satisfaction. It was time to leave. There was another visitor waiting for him. But the affable Khushwant, with a disarming smile, made sure that he saw me out first and wished me success in my profession. His humility remains embedded in my mind. It was a feeling like no other. The interview was published in the inaugural edition of the magazine. I was exhilarated to see my first byline, that too, for an interview that most struggling reporters are not fortunate enough to have early on in their careers.

Woman swims 300 feet under ice for record

Norway: A South African woman broke her own Guinness World Record by swimming a distance of 295 feet and 3 inches under ice.

Amber Fillary, who initially set the record two years ago in Oppsjo, Norway, with a distance of 229 feet and 7.9 inches, broke her own record in Kongsberg, Norway, with a 295-foot, 3-inch swim without fins or a diving suit.

Fillary also holds the Guinness World Record for longest underwater walk with one breath, which she achieved in Dahab, Egypt, with a 359-foot, 6-inch stroll.

Fillary said she prepared for her most recent record attempt by gradually getting her body used to the cold in Berlin and then practicing in the Norway lake where she broke the record.

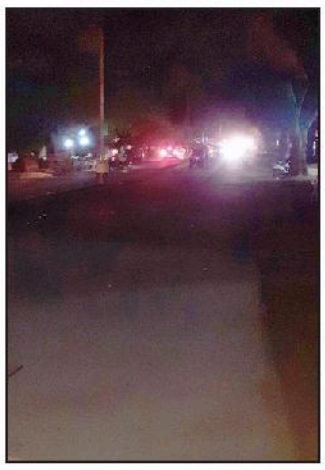
No street-lights on Shivaji Road in N.R. Mohalla



Sir,

There are no street-lights on Shivaji Road in N.R. Mohalla for the past one-and-a-half-month.

Reason: Roads are dug up for cabling work to replace the street-lights with LEDs and the dug road left unattended, causing inconvenience to the commuters, particularly morning walkers, ladies and senior citizens.

The whole stretch of 2 kms from Fountain Circle till the end of North-East of N.R. Mohalla is in pitch darkness and scary to walk. Earlier there were complaints of chain-snatching too in this area. I don't understand why it is taking such a long time in this modern technological era to put the things in order. Several complaints made to the area Corporator and MCC have not yielded any results.

I request the authorities concerned to take the matter seriously and restore the lights on these dark streets immediately without any further delay.

Ex-Mayor bats for rebuilding

Lansdowne, Devaraja Market buildings

Mysuru Apr. 24- Former Mayor Sandesh Swamy has opined that it is better to rebuild Lansdowne and Devaraja Market building instead of keeping them as ruins. He was responding to the confusions prevailing around the buildings whether they are to be renovated or to be rebuilt again after demolishing the existing structures.

Sandesh Swamy

Sandesh Swamy said that Devaraja Market and Lansdowne buildings are heritage structures. The shops and stalls surrounding Devaraja Market have new sheets and roof covers which were built after the fire mishap. After the incident of a shop collapse on New Sayyaji Rao Road resulting in the death of a person in 2006-07, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) had submitted a scientific proposal of renovating the heritage structure and providing parking and other facilities in a three-acre area in the middle of the market. The then MCC Officials led by the then MCC Commissioner Raiker inspected the site and proposed a project worth Rs. 30 crore which included a parking facility for 1,200 vehicles at the basement with 2,200 new shops in the ground and first floor.

Similarly, a proposal was also submitted to retain stone pillars and the existing ground floor of Lansdowne building, with a change in the roof top and rebuilding of first floor as per the old heritage design and elevation. But the plans were not implemented, Sandesh Swamy regretted.

Wondering how long we can retain the shops with sheet roofs which are housed inside the market, he observed that the collapsed portions must be rebuilt, otherwise Mysuru city will look like a ruined Hampi.

Hanuma Jayantyotsava celebration held in city

Mysuru, Apr. 24 (PM&TRR)- A colourful Hanuma Jayantyotsava organised by Karunada Vijayasene State Youth Wing was held yesterday in the city.

Five 'Utsava Murthy' of Lord Hanuman including a Panchaloha idol were the main attraction of the procession taken out from Maharaja College Grounds to Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple. While the huge Panchaloha Hanuman placed in an attractive mantap was taken in a Sarot, remaining idols were taken in tractors which were colourfully decorated. Many folk art troupes also took part in the procession.

The splendour of saffron flags with picture of Hanuman and the enthusiasm of the devotees created a vibrant ambience.

The idols of Hanuman in various postures, nadaswara, drum beats and various folk artiste troupes added cultural value which enthralled the devotees of Lord Hanuma.

Mayor (in-Charge) Sunanda Palanetra flagged off the procession by offering flowers to the idol. Actor Druva Sarja later accompanied the procession from Ramaswamy Circle till Patashala Circle.

Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra, speaking to the press persons, lauded the arrangements made by the Vijayasene which is based at Bengaluru. He said, "The organisation has decided to organise Hanuma Jayanthi in every district of the State every year and they have started from Mysuru. They have also given fresh coat of paint to over 500 Government schools and are blending social and religious activities very well."

Vijayasene Founding President H.N. Deepak, who too spoke, said that Lord Hanuma is known for loyalty, devotion and strength. "We need to unite the youth in all the districts and keep them away from all the undesirable activities and with this intention, we are organising programmes like Hanuma Jayanthi and want to do it in all the districts within the State in upcoming years. We have started the celebrations from Mysuru today after seeking blessings from Goddess Chamundeshwari," he added.

Gundlupet MLA C.N. Niranjankumar, BJP leader Venkataramana Das, Corporator Pramila Bharath, Vijayasene State President R.S. Mahesh and other devotees were present during the celebrations.

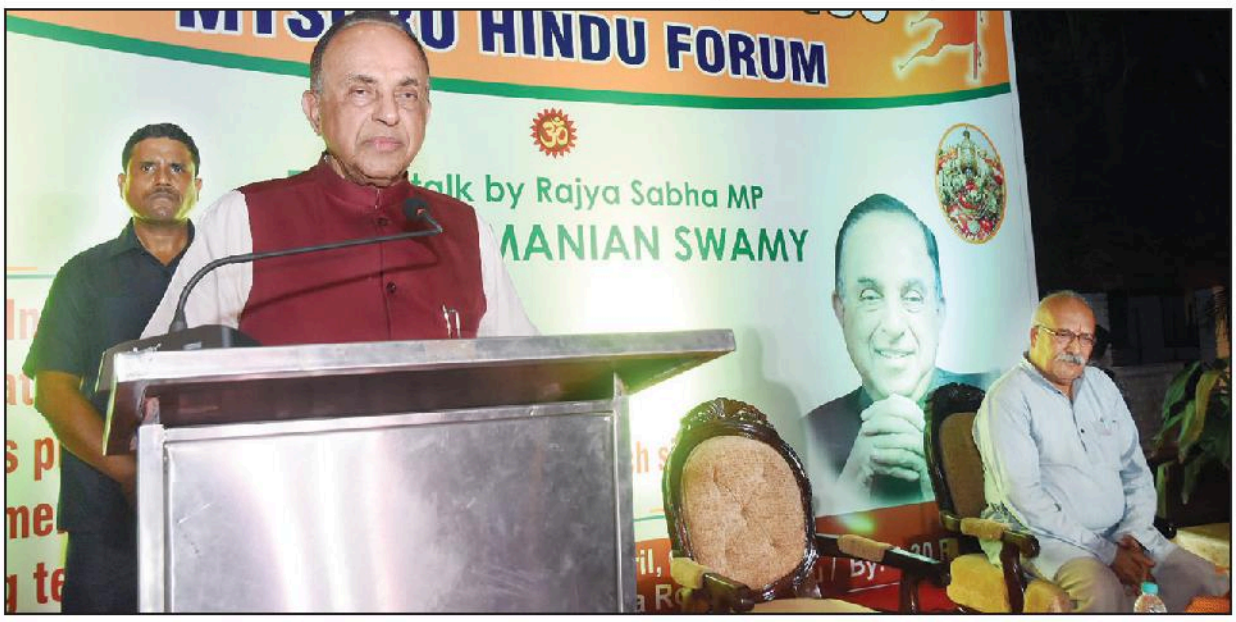
Peace restored in J&K after Article 370 repeal

Rajya Sabha MP Dr. Subramanian Swamy in city; dwells on a wide range of subjects



Mysuru, Apr. 24 (MK&BCT)- BJP leader and Rajya Sabha MP Dr. Subramanian Swamy called upon the countrymen to fight against China. "Unless India defeats China economically and intellectually, we cannot be a superpower. China's aggression across the borders must be countered with a formidable force. India cannot be a circus lion but it must be like a lion in the wild," he said.

Dr. Swamy was speaking as a special guest at a programme organised by Mysuru Hindu Forum at Hotel Southern Star last evening. Speaking at an open stage, the MP said that the present GDP of India is next to the United States of America and China. "By 2050, India will overtake the US and China and will get the first place in the world," he claimed.

Dwelling on various topics including how China had occupied 200 km of land in Galwan Valley, he said that in 2020, India was able to free the territory from China's stronghold and in the process, over 100 Chinese army personnel were killed. India lost 20 brave soldiers, he said.

On the Ram Mandir in Ayodhya, Dr. Swamy said that like this dispute was amicably settled, the disputes of Sri Krishna Mandir at Mathura and Kashi Vishwanatha Mandir in Kashi have to be settled in a peaceful manner.

"People with vested interests and ulterior motives used to tell us that there would be widespread riots and bloodshed if the Ram Temple at Ayodhya is built and if Article 370 is scrapped from Jammu and Kashmir. Not a drop of blood is spilt and we are constructing a grand temple in Ayodhya and Jammu and Kashmir has been integrated into India," he said.

"Peace has come to Jammu and Kashmir after 75 years and recently I had been there and was happy to see that people are living in cordiality without any fear of militants unlike in the past. I have even conducted an open stage programme there. This was unthinkable before the draconian Article 370 was repealed," he added.

Speaking on Kashmiri Pandits who were forced to leave Kashmir by militants, Dr. Swamy said that if adequate security is provided by retired Army personnel, many Kashmiri Pandits might be willing to go back to their homeland.

Speaking about different religions in India, the Rajya Sabha MP said that DNA of all Indians is one. "This has been proved by research. Hindus have not come from outside, They are the original inhabitants of India. Aryans and Dravidans are not separate races. Many religions came to India and we have never tortured them. While Christian came from Europe, Islam came to India from Iran and Parsis came from Persia. India has treated all religions equally and all have equal rights," he added.

On Sanskrit, Dr. Swamy said the world has accepted Sanskrit."A time has come for the world to speak Sanskrit as an alternative to English and many scientific research have upheld the significance of Sanskrit," he said.

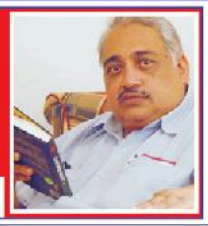
Over a cup of evening Tea



By Dr. K. Javeed Nayeem, MD

Let's not re-invite COVID with 'Revenge' Tourism!

Very recently our State Health Minister and the Deputy Commissioner of Mysuru District have called upon citizens to continue to use masks, despite the Government withdrawing the official order that made their use mandatory in all public places. This tiny bit of advice should be followed with a little seriousness which most citizens do not seem to be doing now.

Although they have only spoken of face masks, their advice should also be interpreted as an appeal to continue to observe all other COVID precautions too, for some more time, which I feel would be a most sensible approach, if we have to remain safe till the pandemic is completely wiped out from every nook and corner of the country and even the world.

It was only the early abandonment of these precautions with a sense of elation, after the first wave just seemed to be abating, which certainly caused the lethal second wave to wreak havoc across the world. And, like the utterly helpless spectators or sufferers that we were, we saw and experienced the horrors of the most devastating pestilence that three generations of humanity saw for the first time in their lives.

It left no corner of the world untouched, and unaffected, except perhaps for the most isolated, island-dwelling inhabitants who were completely isolated from civilisation and the rest of humanity. The mutation of the virus into its more lethal Delta variant was actually one of the lesser reasons for its spread. It was our complacence and carelessness that played the bigger role.

And, sadly, it was only after we gave it a chance to spread and take hold, that we realised how lethal it was and started lamenting and grieving over our sufferings and losses. Even as the first wave was still waning, people started celebrating not only its departure but also all their weddings, conventions, social, political and religious gatherings which they had been forced to put on hold, in what seemed like wanton acts of vengeance, at having been denied their freedom to do so over just half a year!

We clearly saw instances where there were angry and even violent protests demanding that Governments withdraw all their COVID restrictions. And, we also clearly saw many instances where Governments did yield to these demands rather prematurely, with disastrous outcomes. This was the case not just in our country but all over the world, wherever democracy gave people the freedom to take to the streets and protest. It has been rightly said long ago, that though democracy is the best form of Government, it is still not the most ideal one!

Now, before someone can point it out, let me admit that to suit my need here, I have no doubt twisted this quote just a little bit but I have done that without taking away its essence. And, now that I have confessed to my tampering with it, I am very sure that most of you will Google to check what its original form is and who first said it!

Coming back to the present, with the perceptible drop in COVID cases, we can clearly see that already there is hectic activity all around us, with people poised to head to every place of tourist importance, big or small. This has very aptly been called 'Revenge Tourism' by some clever person.

With the holiday season all set to begin immediately after the examinations are over, hotels and resorts are all over booked and we are very likely to see a heavy rush of people everywhere. And, because all is fair in love and war and in a crowd too, people are most certainly going to throw all caution to the winds in a bid to have a good time, after what seems like a very long time!

But becoming a part of all this frenzied enthusiasm is not a very good or safe idea. It pays to tread a little more cautiously. Although Omicron did not do all that we feared that it would do, it was just plain good luck that it had a genetic make up that did not make it as lethal as its two forerunners. It is good to keep in mind that the lethality of viruses can head either way and there is just no way of forecasting the direction it can take with every new strain and every new wave.

So, it makes perfect sense if we all expect the worst and continue to remain extremely cautious for a couple of years more, till the pandemic merges into history. And, thankfully, from what we have been observing, that stage is not likely to be very far, which should be a reason for us to feel happy but without yet congregating to celebrate! There is some strong scientific evidence that indicates that the vaccination that was undertaken all over the world helped to a great extent in containing both the march and the severity of the pandemic.

In addition, the booster doses that our elderly people took, also seemed to have done much good to them. Some of the slightly more wary ones amongst us may continue to be ridiculed for not shaking hands or honouring every invitation and showing up at every social event. But please take my word, it is good to be careful for some more time. Such people are the ones who are actually doing a service to society and humanity by being the broken links in the chain of the spread of the pandemic and I'm glad that I'm with them!

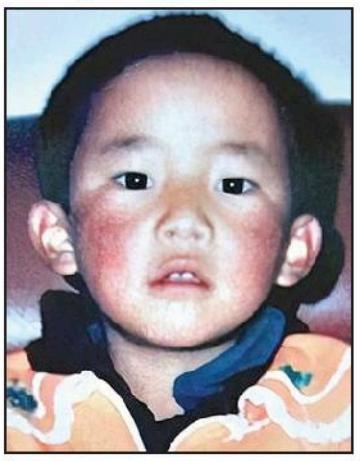
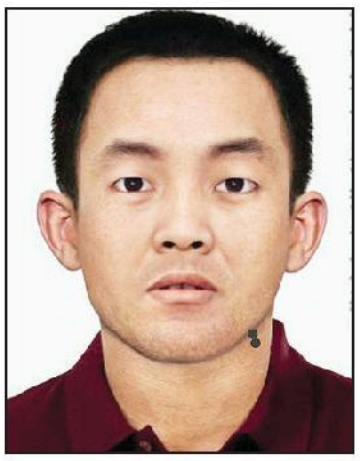
Tibetans prepare for Panchen Lama's birthday

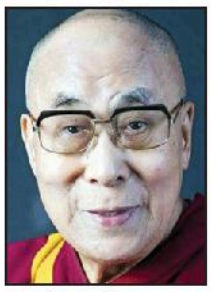
Hope to see him after 27 years





11th Panchen Lama when he was a child and a portrait on how he might look like now.

Bylakuppe, Apr. 24 (Rajesh& DM)- With as many as 27 years gone by after the 11th Panchen Lama, who is also the head of Tashi Lampu Monastery, was reportedly abducted by the Chinese, Tibetans in the Bylakuppe Tibetan camp in Periyapatna taluk of Mysuru district and so also all other Tibetans worldwide, are hoping against hope to see him one day in the near future.



Dalai Lama

Dalai Lama, the head monk of Tibetan Buddhists, announced on May 14, 1995, that Gedhun Choki Naima, then a six-year old boy, as the second Panchen Lama. But three days later, on May 17, 1995, Naima went missing along with all his family members. Since then, the whereabouts of Naima, who is believed to have been abducted by the Chinese, are not known to anyone.

Following Naima's disappearance, Tibetans say that Naima has been abducted by the Chinese and kept in a secret location and that he is one among the longest serving political prisoners in the world. The revered Panchen Lama is a highly regarded monk for Tibetans worldwide as it is he who succeeds in case of death of Dalai Lama.

Dalai Lama discovered Naima in 1995 when he was searching for the 11th Panchen Lama after the death of the 10th Lama. But Naima's selection as the Panchen Lama was not accepted by the Chinese Government and subsequently, it took custody of Naima along with all his family members.

Later, the Chinese named one Gyanakain Norbu as the 11th Panchen Lama at the end of 1995. But the Chinese selection of Panchen Lama was rejected by Tibetans and other Buddhists worldwide.

Now, even 27 years after the mysterious disappearance of Naima, the Tibetans are still searching for the Panchen Lama whom they had chosen.

Meanwhile, as the 27th anniversary of the reported abduction of the Panchen Lama nears, Tibetans across India are planning to stage a massive demonstration marking the birthday of Naima, which falls on Apr. 25. This time, they are hoping that they will get an opportunity to have a look at the 11th Panchen Lama.

Residents of Bylakuppe Tibetan colony are making grand preparations for the birthday of Naima, which will be celebrated at Tashi Lampu Monastery on Apr. 25.

The book is written by Kubbachira Jeya Uttappa and Banu Uttappa.

Thespian Dr. Rajkumar remembered

Mayor (in-Charge) Sunanda Palanetra is seen offering floral tributes to the statue of late thespian Dr. Rajkumar at Dr. Rajkumar Park near Mysore Palace this morning as part of the birth anniversary celebrations of the matinee idol organised by the District Administration, Zilla Panchayat, Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and the Department of Information and Public Relations. Corporator Sathish, Dr. Rajkumar Sangha District President Mahadevaswamy, Department of Information and Public Relations Assistant Director Harish and others were present.

Mysuru sizzles in summer heat

From Apr. 16 to Apr. 19, maximum day temperature hovered between 31.2 and 34 degrees Celsius while the minimum temperature was between 21.2 and 21.8 degrees Celsius. From Apr. 20 to Apr. 22, the maximum day temperature was between 34.2 and 34.4 degrees Celsius and night temperature was between 21 and 22.4 degrees Celsius.

However, from Apr. 24 to Apr. 27, there will be an increase in temperature in Mysuru and even the minimum temperature will be slightly higher. The forecast for Apr. 23 was 35 degrees Celsius and from Apr. 24 till Apr. 26 it will be 36 degrees Celsius while on Apr. 27, the temperature will hit 37 degrees Celsius. The night temperature too will rise on Apr. 26 and Apr. 27 to 23 degrees Celsius.

As per the overall forecast received from the IMD, no rainfall is expected from Apr. 24 to Apr. 27 in the district. The day temperature is expected to be 35 to 37 degrees Celsius and night temperature is expected to be 22 to 23 degrees Celsius.

The relative humidity in the morning hours is expected to be 85-87 percent and afternoon relative humidity is expected to be in the range 82 to 84 percent. Wind speed is expected to be 1 to 3 km per hour. According to IMD, the maximum temperature of 37 degrees Celsius is in fact above 2 to 3 degrees Celsius from the normal temperature.

Large and indiscriminate conversion of agricultural land into layouts, townships and housing complexes within the city and around it and the vanishing of vegetation canopy have contributed to the worsening climatic conditions of the city.

Added to the woes is fruit juices, milk shakes, tender coconut, watermelon and even the common soda and buttermilk prices are set to go up. If fruit traders are to be believed, the prices of juicy fruits will go up by 15 to 30 percent. Fruits like watermelon, orange, sweet lime, muskmelon, sapota, grapes and pineapple will be in demand till the monsoon sets in.

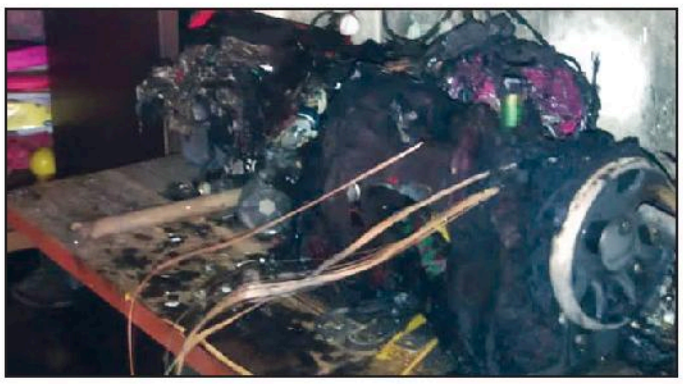
40-year-old dies, wife critical after EV bike battery explodes



Amaravati, Apr. 24- A 40-year-old man was killed when the battery of his new electric bike exploded causing fire in his bedroom in Vijayawada city in the early hours of Saturday.

His wife suffered burns and was in a critical condition in hospital, Police said.

Their two children also suffered from asphyxiation but were stable, the Police added.

The incident was similar to the one that happened three days ago in Nizamabad town in neighbouring Telangana where an Electric Vehicle (EV) battery exploded killing an 80-year-old man.

These were the two major incidents involving EV batteries in the two Telugu States, while similar accidents were reported from other States like Maharashtra and Tamil Nadu in recent days.

The victim K. Siva Kumar, who was a self-employed DTP worker, purchased the electric bike only on Friday.

The detachable battery of the vehicle was kept on charging in his bedroom on Friday night and it suddenly exploded in the early hours when all were fast asleep, Suryaraopet Inspector of Police V. Janaki Ramaiah said.

The explosion caused a minor fire in the house gutting the air-conditioning machine and some household articles.

Neighbours who saw smoke billowing out of the house broke the doors open and pulled out the family trapped inside.

Sivakumar died while being shifted to hospital in an ambulance.

His wife was admitted to a private hospital for treatment, where she was kept under 48-hour observation, Police added.

"The exact cause of the explosion is not known. Fire services personnel also visited the scene to determine the cause. We have also spoken to the EV company to check whether electric short circuit could be the reason for the battery explosion," the Inspector said.

A case has been registered and investigation taken up.

Incidentally, Government think tank NITI Aayog had two days ago come out with a draft battery swapping policy for EVs and suggested incentives as well as a rigorous testing protocol for swappable batteries.

It came amid rising concerns over safety issues around the EVs.

Further, Union Minister Nitin Gadkari had on Thursday said that companies found negligent will be penalised and a recall of all defective EVs will be ordered after receiving the report of an expert panel that has been formed to enquire into the matter.

WORD OF THE DAY

Vanguard

Pronunciation: VAN-gahrd.
Meaning: Vanguard refers to the forefront of an action or movement. That meaning comes from the word's original sense referring to troops moving at the head of an army.
Origin: Vanguard comes from Anglo-French avantgarde, from avant, meaning "before," and garde, "guard." In medieval times, avantgarde referred to the troops that marched at the head of the army. In time, vanguard marched its way as a word for the group of people who are the leaders of an action or movement in society, politics, art, etc.
Example: "In the Gold Rush, Northern California attracted prospectors looking for financial independence. Now, this area is at the vanguard of a new movement—people seeking to use only the energy they produce themselves." — Ivan Penn

THE ODD WORD

Vafrous

Cunning; sly.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Heard it on the grapevine

Meaning: This phrase "heard it on the grapevine" or "heard it though the grapevine" is a nice way of saying that one heard the information by means of gossip and rumour.
Origin: The "grapevine telegraph" was a way to express that information was received by eavesdropping on conversations going on between workers in the grapevines.
Example: "I heard on the grapevine that my sister-in-law got the promotion, but I really don't know much about it."

QUOTE BOX

Nothing great is created suddenly, any more than a bunch of grapes or a fig. — Epictetus
